Incumbents win re-election to RRG board

Ann Arbor, MI (January 11, 2017) -- The annual HealthCap RRG Board of Directors election has been completed. Congratulations to Paul Liistro of Arbors-Connecticut and Jay Moskowitz of Vivage Quality Health Partners who were re-elected to three-year terms.

We are grateful to all the HealthCap members who weighed in by casting ballots in this year's election and to all the nominees who offered their time and talents in support of HealthCap. We are especially grateful to Doug Johnson from Hawkeye Care Centers (Iowa) who, as a first-time candidate, offered his time and talents in service to HealthCap. Thank you one and all.

Formed in 2001, HealthCap® is a member-owned and member-governed insurance company dedicated to Protecting the People Who Provide the Care™ by providing best-in-class risk management services and general and professional liability insurance to senior care organizations throughout the United States.
